Through The Darkness

Another Shadow

Don't waste my time talking about tomorrow
Don't waste my time talking about past
Don't try to tell me whom I just have to follow
Don't even try to make me live fast

Fallow my way I cast another shadow
Leaving behind all that has gone
I walk the skies touching the stars around me
And my shadows will die under the sun

All that I've done is just another shadow
It is not me I left it behind
So don't waste your time trying to put together
Me and my shadows they are just gone

Immortal Bride

She's like a tale without end
She lives in her fantastic land
Her smile is like the rising sun
I know she never will be gone

She speaks to me all over night
And she is soft like evening shadow
She always be immortal bride
Who calls me standing in the meadow

She dresses in the dark and light
But in her eyes so many sorrow
But you will never see her cry
You'll see her watching for tomorrow

Her world is hidden from the eyes
She dances, sings but not for people
She's sick and tired from human lies
And only chosen ones can see her

Absurd Game

Fall deep inside the rabbit's hole
There are no rules in this long fall
The images rush through your brain
You are the one who starts the game

The house of cards is falling down
Behind the wall there is a town
But door is locked there's no key
Don't look for answers inside me

You have to play this absurd game
And it is making your insane
Reality becomes a dream
You cut it with your own scream

You see the smile without cat
And you don't have your own hat
You want come back but you don't know
The way that leads you to the home

Don't lose your head before the queen
Forget it like the awful dream
Insanity becomes alive
Your only goal is to survive

Insects In The Amber

See how the days are passing by
Remember all of them just try
Now you can travel through your past
Before your body turns to dust

We are like insects in the amber
In the hands of fate
We are like insects in the amber
We'll draw together in the sand
In the end

See how the years pass away
Grab all the moments on this way
And build your citadel of dreams
And bury there all your fears

The Nameless Ghost

Deserted graveyard near house
That stays without life for yeas
It used to be asylum ones
And shadow of the past appears

The number is instead your name
Carved on headstone above your grave
And only wish is to return
To living ones and find your home

And people hear your voice sometimes
When you cry out for redemption
They see your face when daylight dies
But they don't really pay attention

You are condemned to walk alone
Through corridors of dying building
But people can not hear your call
The nameless ghost stands at the window

The years of waiting slowly pass
And grave is hidden under grass
But you're still hoping to return
To living ones and find your home

Think Yourself

We are too blind to see the truth
And we waste our own youth
We are too slow to catch the days
And we lost our own ways

Jump into abyss drown in skies
And free yourself from all these lies
This world is not good as it seems
So pour yourself into your dreams

We are too scared to be alone
And we leave our own home
We are too weak to be against
So we are just a time waste

But all of us have one more chance
To find romance behind gray days
Just look into yourself and find
The worlds unknown to mankind

Insanity

The world of sense is left behind
In your bizarre unknown ride
You don't remember anything
Now you are living in your dream

They want you to return
And live like all they do
But you don't hear them
And they can't follow you
None can understand
What hides behind your eyes
They think it is the end
But you don't hear their lies

Your world's unseen but it is real
You live in it, it is your realm
But everyone rejects to see
In your insanity you are free

Behind The Wall Of Sleep

Just close your eyes, relax and fall in dream with me
Don't be afraid to feel don't be afraid to see
Just leave your body in the bed so far behind
And you will see my friend the darkness and the light

Behind the wall of sleep the shadows dance and sing
Behind the wall of sleep the bells unknown ring
There's the gate to stars behind the wall of sleep
And you are falling down in abyss that so deep

Don't be afraid my friend this does not mean the end
You'll see the truth in dreams and you will understand
Just close your eyes and see the worlds behind the veil
And every night my friend you can see them again

Seek And Hide

I start this game before sunrise
I start to count I close my eyes
You have the whole day just to hide
Before the moon will shine so bright

We play the game of seek and hide
My prize is blood your prize is life
We have all night to play this game
But it will never be the same

I look for you when darkness falls
I can't see you but your smell calls
And moon tonight is shining bright
And this is game of seek and hide

My prize is blood you've lost your life
In this old game of seek and hide
We have all night to play this game
But it will never be the same
